Without Dream Tree for competition, Midnight Bisou won her first race and first stakes simultaneously in the Grade 2 Santa Ynez Stakes for 3-year-old fillies at Santa Anita on Jan. 7.

The style of the win suggested Midnight Bisou may be competitive with Dream Tree in future races. Dream Tree is unbeaten in three starts after a win in the Grade 1 Starlet Stakes at Los Alamitos in December.

Midnight Bisou was beaten a nose by Dream Tree in a maiden race at Santa Anita on Oct. 27 and in the Desi Arnaz Stakes at Del Mar on Nov. 18. Despite losing, those races made Midnight Bisou a leading contender in the $201,035 Santa Ynez Stakes. She was the 9-5 second choice in the field of eight.

Ridden for the first time by Mike Smith, Midnight Bisou stalked the pace to early stretch before taking the lead with a wide rally in the final furlong. Midnight Bisou ($5.60) pulled clear in the final sixteenth to win by 4 1-2 lengths over 25-1 Steph Being Steph.

Win the War, the 8-5 favorite, finished third after racing within a half-length of the lead in early stretch.

Midnight Bisou ran seven furlongs in 1:23.40.

Smith said he was impressed with Midnight Bisou's ability to run near the front after rallying from off the pace in her first two starts. Midnight Bisou trailed pacesetter War Heroine by less than two lengths for the first half-mile.

"I was surprised she showed that much speed," Smith said. "She's sharp right now. I would have thought she would come from farther back."

When Midnight Bisou reached the front, Smith felt an obligation to stay active on the filly even though she was clear.

"It was more for me," he said.

Steph Being Steph finished a nose in front of Win the War, who won her first two starts at Woodbine last fall, including the Glorious Song Stakes by 11 1/4 lengths at seven furlongs. Steph Being Steph, who won the Golden Gate Debutante on Nov. 24, raced on the rail throughout the Santa Ynez.

"I got a lot of pressure from the inside post," jockey Stewart Elliott said. "She had to run the whole race, but she was very game."

Midnight Bisou, by Midnight Lute, races for Bloom Racing and Allen Racing and was purchased for $80,000 last April at the Ocala Breeders' Sale of 2-year-olds in training. She has earned $150,000 for the partnership and trainer Bill Spawr.

In 2017, Itsinthepost was second in his first two starts and later won three stakes in a nine-race campaign. On Jan. 6, Itsinthepost won his first start of the year in the Grade 2 San Gabriel Stakes at Santa Anita.

The quick success so early in the calendar is an indication of the high hopes for Itsinthepost this year.

"He's a changed horse," jockey Tyler Baze said.

Sent off favored, Itsinthepost won the $201,725 San Gabriel Stakes by 1 1/4 lengths over Flamboyant in his first start since finishing seventh in the Breeders'

Cup Turf at Del Mar on Nov. 4. In the San Gabriel, Itsinthepost stalked pacesetter Smokey Image for the first seven furlongs before taking the lead in early stretch.

"The race set up exactly as I thought," Baze said. "I was where I wanted to be. When I wanted him to go, he was ready for me."

Itsinthepost repelled a challenge from 6-1 Flamboyant, who closed from last.

"I thought I had them for a second," said jockey Drayden Van Dyke, who rode Flamboyant.

Itsinthepost ($6.60) ran 1 1/8 miles on turf in 1:47.59.

"I couldn't pull him up," Baze said.

Editore, a 17-1 outsider, finished third, followed by Smokey Image, Isotherm, Free Rose, He Will, Win the Space, Tequila Joe and Top of the Game.

Itsinthepost was second in the 2017 San Gabriel Stakes and later won three Grade 2 races at distances ranging from 1 1/4 miles to 1 1/2 miles – the San Luis Rey Stakes at Santa Anita in March, the Elkhorn Stakes at Keeneland in April, and the John Henry Turf Championship at Santa Anita in October.

In the BC Turf, Itsinthepost was as close as fourth in the final half-mile and was beaten 5 1/4 lengths by winner Talismanic.

"We gave him two weeks after the Breeders' Cup and started him slowly," trainer Jeff Mullins said. "He's trained outstanding."

Owned by Jed Cohen and his family, Itsinthepost has won 7 of 31 starts and earned $855,712. A 6-year-old gelding, Itsinthepost is by American Post and was bred in France. Mullins said a campaign of turf marathon stakes will be planned this year.

With the Kentucky Derby four months away, now is the time to experiment, but also to gain the experience needed for the demands of that race. It was in that context that McKinzie ran on Jan. 6 in the Sham Stakes at Santa Anita, for, with just two starts, he needed more of a foundation, and after getting rank in his prior start, the blinkers were removed, even though he had never lost.

The improvement in the Sham was noticeable. McKinzie sat comfortably just off a moderate pace while wide, then powered home to win the Grade 3, $100,345 Sham by a widening 3 1/2 lengths and solidify his position among the nation's best 3-year-olds.

McKinzie ($2.40 to win), the heavy favorite, completed one mile on the fast main track in 1:36.58, which should translate to a strong Beyer Speed Figure based on how dull this track has played. All Out Blitz, the early leader, was clearly second, four lengths better than My Boy Jack.

Shivermetimbers, the second choice, was fourth, then came the race's two longest shots, City Plan and Here Is Happy.

McKinzie has won all three of his starts, and even though he was credited with a Grade 1 win last time in the Los Alamitos Cash Call Futurity, this was his best race yet.

As in the Los Alamitos Futurity, victory in the Sham was worth 10 points toward a berth in the Kentucky Derby.

"I'm happy. Everything went smooth," said his trainer, Bob Baffert. "He got a lot out of that. I'm trying to get a base in him."

McKinzie did not make his debut until Oct. 28, when he beat maidens at Santa Anita. He has had three races in 2 1/2 months, and likely will have two more starts before the Kentucky Derby.

"I had to rush him into those races," Baffert said of his first two starts. "He didn't relax in the Los Al Futurity. He was rank. But he got a lot out of it.

"Last time, he got a little tired at the end. That was a good race. Those are good horses."

McKinzie was placed first in the Los Alamitos Futurity on the disqualification of his stablemate, Solomini, who was adjudged by the stewards to have interfered with third-place finisher Instilled Regard. McKinzie, who crossed the wire second, was promoted to the victory when Solomini was moved back to third.

The result in the Sham was clear-cut. And McKinzie was much more sensible under regular rider Mike Smith with the blinkers off.

"Mike said he was better like that," Baffert confirmed.

McKinzie, by Street Sense, is owned by Mike Pegram, Karl Watson, and Paul Weitman, best known for racing two-time Eclipse Award winner Looking At Lucky, among many top runners. McKinzie is named for Baffert's long-time friend, Brad McKinzie, the popular racing executive at Los Alamitos who died last year.

"Lot of pressure with that name," Baffert said.

McKinzie earned $60,000 to bring his career bankroll to $270,000. He was purchased by his owners as a yearling for $170,000. That's a nice base. But based on what he's shown so far, there's more to come.
