Last fall, Conquest Tsunami was moved from trainer Mark Casse's stable in Florida to Peter Miller in California at the insistence of owner Gary Barber.

The transfer has turned Conquest Tsunami into a graded stakes winner.

In the Grade 3 Daytona Stakes on Feb. 24 at Santa Anita, Conquest Tsunami led throughout the turf sprint to give Miller a sweep of the first three positions. Stormy Liberal, the upset winner of the Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Del Mar in November, finished second, 1 1/4 lengths in front of Calculator, the 9-5 favorite who won the restricted Clocker's Corner Stakes on Jan. 28.

Conquest Tsunami, ridden by Victor Espinoza, completed the 6 1/2 furlongs in 1:12.03. A 6-year-old gelding, Conquest Tsunami is unbeaten in two starts on the hillside turf course, having won an allowance race with a $62,500 claiming option in his California debut on Jan. 20.

"I wanted firm ground, and I wanted down the hill," Barber said. "He's always shown great ability."

CONTINUED

Espinoza had Conquest Tsunami in front by at least a length throughout, setting a decent pace of 21.99 seconds for the opening quarter-mile and 44.09 for the half-mile. Conquest Tsunami led by two lengths with a furlong to go and won by 2 1/2 lengths.

Tombelaine finished fourth, followed by Perfectly Majestic, What a View, and Faboozi.

The $150,690 Daytona Stakes was the first start for Stormy Liberal since an 11th-place finish in the Group 1 Hong Kong Sprint at Sha Tin Racecourse in December.

The Daytona was a career milestone for the 51-year-old Miller – his first sweep of a trifecta in a graded stakes.

Conquest Tsunami was purchased for $140,000 at the 2016 Keeneland November breeding stock sale and has won two of seven starts for Barber.

Conquest Tsunami has won 8 of 22 starts and earned $503,066. Earlier in his career, Conquest Tsunami won consecutive sprint stakes for 2-year-olds at Woodbine in 2014

– the Victoria Stakes and Colin Stakes – when owned by Conquest Stable.

Economic Model edged away from Irish War Cry for his first stakes victory in more than 20 months in a spill-marred 28th running of the Grade 3, $100,000 Hal's Hope on Feb. 24 at Gulfstream Park.

Economic Model, ridden by Irad Ortiz Jr., sat a good inside stalking trip before getting the best of Irish War Cry, the 19-10 favorite in the field of seven older horses, after the race came down to that pair.

The one-mile Hal's Hope was marred by the fatal breakdown of Send It In, who was making his first start since earning a 119

Beyer Speed Figure in April. The 6-year-old gelding was tracking the pace from an outside position when he suffered a catastrophic injury approaching the three-eighths pole, throwing Hall of Fame jockey John Velazquez to the ground. Velazquez was on his feet shortly thereafter and was fortunate to escape serious injury. No other horses or jockeys were affected.

Send It In, trained by Todd Pletcher for owner-breeder Paul Pompa Jr., won nine of 18 starts and earned $500,914.

For Economic Model, a 5-year-old horse by Flatter, the win was his first in a stakes since he captured the Easy Goer on the 2016 Belmont Stakes undercard. He was making his first start since Oct. 17 for trainer Chad Brown and his owners, Klaravich Stables and William H. Lawrence. He paid $12.20 to win after finishing in 1:36.50 over a fast track and now has earned $614,625 from 14 starts.

For the connections of Irish War Cry, the effort was encouraging following a five-month layoff. Making his 4-year-old debut after a terrific 3-year-old season in which he won three stakes and finished second in the Belmont, the colt saved ground under Jose Ortiz before angling out and settling for second, 1 3/4 lengths behind Economic Model.

"I finally got out at the quarter pole," Jose Ortiz said. "I thought he was going to win. My horse hasn't run in a long time. I think he will improve. I really like him."

Tower of Texas closed belatedly to be third, another length behind Irish War Cry and 4 1/4 lengths before Conquest Big E.
