As it turns out, Dr. Dorr does not need the lead to win a big race around two turns.

On Apr. 28 at Santa Anita, the improving gelding scored a convincing victory in the Grade 2 Californian Stakes to emerge as a force in a currently shallow West Coast handicap division. This time, Dr. Dorr did it from off the pace.

Dr. Dorr previously won a minor stakes by leading gate to wire, and he appeared to be the lone speed in the $200,000 Californian at 1 1/8 miles. However, the 10-year-old Soi Phet surprisingly sped to the lead, so Dr. Dorr's rider Joe Talamo let him have it.

Dr. Dorr, the odds-on favorite, pressed

Soi Phet two wide, took the lead when Soi Phet folded nearing the three-eighths pole, opened up into the lane, and coasted by 7 1/4 lengths. The final time was 1:49.84 over a main track. Dr. Dorr paid $3 to win.

Bob Baffert trains Dr. Dorr for his wife Jill, who owns the 5-year-old gelding. Going into the Californian, Baffert was uncertain if Dr. Dorr could be as effective from off the pace.

"Today it looks like he's found a new dimension, we weren't sure he could stalk," Baffert said afterward. "We thought maybe he was one-dimensional."

The win was his third straight, all since he was gelded.

Dr. Dorr earned $120,000 and has won five races and earned $288,320 from 11 starts.

Most Keeneland fans never had heard of Adam Beschizza when the spring meet started April 6, but those paying attention for the last three weeks now know at least a little something about the British native: he wins.

Beschizza sent the Keeneland faithful home impressed with his saddle skills when giving Mom's On Strike a heady come-from-behind ride in upsetting heavily favored Daddys Lil Darling as the 16-day meet came to an end Friday, Apr. 27, with the 57th running of the Grade 3, $150,000 Bewitch Stakes. It was the first graded stakes victory in North America for Beschizza, who only began race-riding on this continent at Fair Grounds this winter.

"I'm thrilled for the mare and for the whole team," said Beschizza, who was aboard for owners Brad Gray and Carl Moore and trainer Joe Sharp.

In the Bewitch, Sully's Dream set the pace for the other six fillies and mares in the 1 1/2-mile turf race, but she was finished by the time the field reached the third and final turn. Daddys Lil Darling, always in good position as the 3-5 favorite under Mike Smith, then briefly took command from Ickymasho upon turning for home, but she had no response for Mom's On Strike, who was in full flight with an outside run. The win margin was 3 1/4 lengths, with Ickymasho another two lengths behind Daddys Lil Darling in third.

Mom's On Strike, a 5-year-old Florida-bred mare by First Dude, returned $11 as third choice after finishing in 2:30.02 over a firm course. It was her sixth win from 15 career starts and also her first in a graded event.

"The distance probably suits me and her quite well," said Beschizza, 25. "This route is ideal for her as she can get into a nice rhythm and allows her to lengthen away. And from what I know back home, we race over further."

Let It Ride Mom made her season debut a winning one over a solid group of fillies and mares on Apr. 28 at Woodbine in the Grade 3 Whimsical Stakes.

With Patrick Husbands aboard, Let It Ride Mom ($9.30) raced between horses in midpack on the backstretch, as the speedy Maryland shipper Jessica Krupnick set honest fractions in the six-furlong sprint. Let It Ride Mom loomed into contention exiting the turn, split rivals in midstretch, and then collared the favored Moonlit Promise late to win by a head in a time of 1:08.96.

Scotty's Model came wide to edge out Jessica Krupnick for third, while a stalking Silent Sonet faded to fifth in the eight-horse field.

It was the third stakes score on the local Tapeta for Let It Ride Mom, a 4-year-old daughter of Into Mischief. She races for Live Oak and is trained by Mark Casse.

"She ran great," said Kathryn Sullivan, an assistant to Casse. "She's a lovely filly. We've always really liked her. She just loves this track. She's grown up a little bit, and matured."

Belvoir Bay keeps getting lucky. Unless maybe she is just that good.

A 5-year-old mare facing colts and geldings, Belvoir Bay took advantage of an expectedly favorable pace scenario on Apr. 29 at Santa Anita, winning the Grade 3 San Simeon Stakes for her eighth victory from 19 starts and her second straight perfect-trip win.

When expected pacesetter Coniah bobbled and was slow from the gate in the turf sprint, Belvoir Bay and jockey Tyler Baze were able to press the pace through an inordinately slow first quarter-mile of 22.13 seconds. The rest was history.

Belvoir Bay shook off Mongolian Saturday, kicked away into the lane and won the $100,345 race by two lengths over the favored Coniah. Isotherm, the second betting choice, finished an even-paced third, followed by Anatolian Heat, Miss Julia Star, and Mongolian Saturday.

Peter Miller trains Belvoir Bay and Anatolian Heat.

Belvoir Bay was winning her second consecutive stakes, following a rail-skimming, off-the-pace victory in the Mizdirection Stakes. The San Simeon victory boosted her career earnings to $438,361. She will seek her third straight stakes win May 28 in the Grade 2 Monrovia Stakes for fillies and mares.

Belvoir Bay returned $7.60 as the third choice in the betting. The final time of the downhill sprint, run over firm turf, was 1:12.37.

If you can't beat 'em, surround 'em. Also, add blinkers and instruct your jockey to orchestrate a perfect trip.

Trainer Richard Baltas started four of the six runners in the Grade 3 Santa Barbara Stakes on Apr. 28 at Santa Anita, a filly-mare turf marathon in which Bob Baffert-trained Plein Air was odds-on.

At the finish of the 1 1/2-mile turf race, it was Baltas-trained Queen Blossom, adding blinkers and benefitting from a terrific ride from Flavien Prat, who scored a $21.60 upset.

Causeforcommotion finished second. Baltas trainees Pantsonfire and Lucy De finished third and fourth, respectively. Plein Air did not get the front-running trip she won with last time and finished fifth. Baltas trainee Space Cadet, the sacrificial rabbit, finished last.

Queen Blossom previously finished fifth behind Plein Air when they met in the Astra Stakes on Jan. 14, and her stablemate Lucy De finished third in that race. Those were the only Baltas runners in the Astra.

For the $100,000 Santa Barbara, Baltas flooded the entry box with four runners. While his 45-1 longshot Space Cadet sped to the front and prevented Plein Air from a lonely lead, Prat tucked Queen Blossom third on the rail.

With blinkers on, Queen Blossom was closer to the pace, and saved ground every step.

At the top of the stretch, she angled out, went back toward the rail, and out-finished Causeforcommotion to win by a half-length. Nice ride by Prat.

Pantsonfire finished third, followed by Lucy De, Plein Air, and Space Cadet.

Queen Blossom, a 5-year-old Irish-bred sired by Jeremy, was winning for the third time in 15 starts. She was making just her third start since a private sale and transfer to Baltas.
