Unique Bella challenged Paradise Woods for the lead through the first six furlongs of the Grade 1 Beholder Mile at Santa Anita on June 2.

When Unique Bella took the lead entering the stretch, the champion female sprinter of 2017 had no challengers in the $400,000 race for fillies and mares.

Unique Bella, the 1-2 favorite, pulled clear from Paradise Woods with a quarter-mile remaining to win the seventh stakes of her career, and second Grade 1, in the Beholder Mile, the top race for female runners at the track's spring-summer meeting.

The win was Unique Bella's first start since a second-place finish at 1-5 after a troubled start in the Grade 1 Apple Blossom Handicap at Oaklawn Park on April 13. Saturday's win led trainer Jerry Hollendorfer to suggest Unique Bella could be bound for Saratoga this summer.

Unique Bella proved to be superior to four rivals in the Beholder. She was timed in 1:35.60 and got a 103 Beyer Speed Figure. The winning time was the fastest mile clocking on a fast track at Santa Anita since Danzing Candy was timed in 1:34.94 when winning an allowance race in May 2017.

Paradise Woods, a two-time Grade 2 winner in 2017, led around the first turn, but was quickly challenged to her outside by Unique Bella through an opening quarter-mile in 22.51 seconds. On the backstretch, Paradise Woods led by about a half-length over Unique Bella, through a half-mile in 44.96 seconds, and could not shake her rival.

On the turn, jockey Mike Smith guided Unique Bella in front of Paradise Woods to take the lead before the quarter pole.

"It was going to be a chess match between the three of us with Paradise Woods and Vale Dori," Smith said. "I figured Paradise Woods would be the speed. I have too much respect to let her go."

Unique Bella was clear in the stretch, leading by four lengths with a furlong remaining, though Smith did not take any chances, flagging his mount a few times left-handed.

"When you go that fast, it sets up for a closer," Smith said. "I took a peek at the big screen and knew we were okay."

Hollendorfer said a quick pace worked in favor of Unique Bella, who has won three sprint stakes in her career.

"I thought if they went 45 or slower, she he had a good chance," he said, referring to the half-mile time in seconds. "She went faster and it didn't matter."

La Force, a 24-1 outsider, closed from last to finish second by 2 1/4 lengths, a margin that was somewhat deceptive since Smith did not urge Unique Bella strenuously in the final strides. Paradise Woods was third, beaten 7 3/4 lengths, and was followed by Vale Dori and Munny Spunt.

Owned by Don Alberto Stable, Unique Bella, by Tapit, has won 8 of 11 starts and earned $1,092,400. She won her first Grade 1 in the La Brea Stakes for 3-year-old fillies at seven furlongs last December.

In her first start this year, Unique Bella won the Grade 2 Santa Maria Stakes at 1 1/16 miles by nine lengths here in February.

Talk about having a huge day, Robert LaPenta co-owns the 3-year-olds Hawkish and Catholic Boy. On June 2, he won the $500,000 Penn Mile with Hawkish and the $200,000 Pennine Ridge at Belmont Park with Catholic Boy.

Jimmy Toner trains Hawkish, who scored a powerful victory in the Penn Mile.

"I was originally thinking about the Pennine Ridge for this horse, but Mr. LaPenta wanted to try and keep them separated, so we went to the Penn Mile," Toner said.

Hawkish and Catholic Boy will likely meet in their next expected start, the $1.2 million Belmont Derby, a 1 1/4-mile turf race on July 7.

Hawkish, was reserved near the back of the field early by jockey Manny Franco. He launched a strong move on the far turn, and looped the three horses battling for the lead with a wide move into the stretch. By the time he hit the furlong pole, the race was basically over.

"He wanted to go early, but I held him," Franco said. "At the three-eighths pole, I had so much horse I just let him go and went around them."

Hawkish won by three lengths over Way Early, who rallied from last to earn second by a neck over Coltanmississippi, who also came from off the pace.

Maraud, who pressed the early pace outside Encumbered, finished fourth, a neck behind Coltanmississippi and 1 3/4 lengths ahead of Encumbered. Coltanmississippi and Maraud are both trained by Todd Pletcher.

At the start, Encumbered stumbled but quickly righted himself and set the pace on a short lead inside Maraud through moderate fractions of 23.24 seconds and 47.62 seconds.

They were joined from the outside by Therapist on the far turn with six furlongs in 1:11.94 before Hawkish came calling.

Hawkish was somewhat surprisingly bet down to favoritism and paid $4.80 to win. He completed a mile on firm turf in 1:35.16.

Hawkish, a son of Artie Schiller is now 3 for 4 in his career. He came into the race off an impressive victory over much easier optional-claiming rivals at Aqueduct.

Hawkish is out of the Unbridled mare Bridal Memories, who is a half-sister to Winter Memories, whom Toner sent out to win seven graded stakes and more than $1.2 million.

Bridal Memories and Winter Memories are both out of the mare Memories of Silver, an eight-time graded winner of more than $1.4 million, who was trained by Toner.

"Somebody sent me a picture of Memories of Silver's head and his head, and they are identical," Toner said. "Whenever I see one from that family, my eyes light up."

Under a textbook turf ride from Gary Boulanger, Caribou Club split horses in the stretch before drawing clear to take the Grade 2 Connaught Cup Stakes over Tower of Texas at Woodbine on June 2.

Caribou Club (18) saved ground in fifth in the seven-furlong sprint as Dimension and Yorkton fought for the lead through fractions of 23.42 seconds and 45.45. Caribou Club awaited room entering the stretch and then kicked away after finding it, scoring by 1 1/2 lengths in 1:20.22 and getting a 101 Beyer Speed Figure.

Tower of Texas, last year's Connaught Cup victor, rallied down the center of the course from last to edge out the favored Conquest Panthera for second. Yorkton, Forge, Bondurant, Camelot Kitten, and Dimension competed the order of finish.

Caribou Club, a 4-year-old son of City Zip, races for Glen Hill Farm and Maryland-based trainer Tom Proctor.

"He's a really nice horse," said Boulanger, who also won the 2015 Connaught Cup on Lockout. "[Proctor] said to get him out of the gate. Sometimes you've got to help him because he's got that extension blinker. I got him into a good position. I was just sitting there, waiting for a spot. He had me in a great position, and when I asked him, he exploded."

Jonathan Thomas went into the Grade 3, $200,000 Pennine Ridge Stakes at Belmont Park on June 2 believing his horse, Catholic Boy, was going to finish second to heavily favored Analyze It. In midstretch, after Analyze It had forged to a clear advantage, Javier Castellano, the rider of Catholic Boy, felt the same way.

But in a stunning turnaround in the last 100 yards, Catholic Boy, the 4-1 second choice in the five-horse field, came back and caught Analyze It, the 1-5 favorite, at the wire to win the Pennine Ridge by a neck.

It was the first defeat for Analyze It after he won his first three starts by 15 3/4 lengths.

Catholic Boy had to withstand a claim of foul from Jose Ortiz, the rider of Analyze It in the face with a whip before the quarter pole and then precipitated a bump in upper stretch. The stewards disallowed the claims.

Catholic Boy was making his first start since he bled while finishing fourth as the 2-1 second choice in the Grade 1 Florida Derby on March 31. He was making his first start on turf since he finished fourth in the Breeders' Cup Juvenile Turf last fall at November. He had won his first two career starts on turf.

Though Catholic Boy had done his best running from off the pace, Thomas felt the only chance his horse had to beat Analyze It was to go to the lead and make Analyze It come after him.

"I wanted to get control of the pace and make that horse kind of come off the bridle and keep contact with us," Thomas said. "If we turned it into a sprint ... I was afraid we wouldn't outfoot him. I wanted to go ahead and send our horse - he's fit - and get into a good rhythm and make that horse try to keep contact with us."

Catholic Boy had the lead for the opening six furlongs with Analyze It stalking from second. Down the backside, Untamed Domain came to the outside of Analyze It.

But around the turn, it became a two-horse race as Analyze It, on the outside, drew on equal terms with Catholic Boy at the quarter pole.

The two made contact in upper stretch, and by the eighth pole Castellano steadied as Analyze It opened up at least a length lead.

"At that point where I checked, I was disappointed because I knew I was not going to win the race," Castellano said.

Castellano moved Catholic Boy to the outside and he re-rallied to just get up by a neck. It was 4 1/4 lengths back to Channel Cat in third. Untamed Domain and Irish Territory completed the order of finish.

Ortiz lodged an objection claiming that Castellano's whip hit Analyze It in the face. Ortiz also alleged that Catholic Boy initiated the contact in upper stretch.

"When I made my horse switch leads, I didn't make the bump. He did it, and then he stood up for no reason," Ortiz said of Castellano. "I guess he was faking a foul just in case I win.”

Castellano refuted Ortiz’s assertions and said in the stretch he was just trying to protect himself anticipating Analyze It coming over on him.

“I don’t want to get to the spot, let him clip heels, and go down,” Castellano said.

Castellano said he was impressed the way Catholic Boy battled back.

“My horse has got such a good heart, you don’t see too many horses like that check at the top of the stretch come back again and win the race,” he said.

Catholic Boy, a son of More Than Ready owned by a partnership that includes Robert LaPenta, Sol Kumin’s Madaket Stables, Siena Farm, and Twin Creeks Racing, completed the 1 1/8 miles in 1:45.78 and returned $10.80 to win. Catholic Boy got a 96 Beyer Speed Figure for his effort.

As Analyze It had continued on when he made the lead in the stretch of his previous three starts, Brown was puzzled at the outcome.

“He sort of put the brakes on I guess, that hasn’t been him,” Brown said. “The horse has kicked clear alone when he’s made the front in his races before, so I’m not sure why he did that. I’ll just have to regroup with the horse and see why he did that today.”

Both horses are likely to meet again in the Grade 1 Belmont Derby on July 7.

Chief Cicatriz got a perfect trip from his outside post in thrashing his rivals on June 2 under the lights at Churchill Downs in the 30th running of the Grade 3, $100,000 Aristides, the highlight of an 11-race Downs After Dark card.

Breaking sharply under James Graham, Chief Cicatriz took over midway through the six-furlong race before rolling to a 6 1/4-length triumph over Mr. Crow, finishing in a swift 1:08.44.

He returned $6.60 to win as the favorite in the field of seven older horses, and earned a 110 Beyer Speed Figure.

“We were perfectly drawn on the outside,” Graham said. “We let the speed go in front of him and he settled and got in a nice rhythm. When we turned for home he just poured it on. He was very impressive tonight.”

Chief Cicatriz, bred and owned by Roy Gene Evans, was fifth in the Grade 2 Churchill Downs on the May 5 Kentucky Derby undercard in his prior start. The 5-year-old Kentucky-bred gelding rebounded admirably for 77-year-old trainer Shawn Davis, a former champion saddle bronc rider who is based primarily in the far southwest.

“Tonight we knew we would see what he’s all about,” Davis said. “He was coming into the race in great shape and we saw the real Chief Cicatriz.”

Chief Cicatriz had won four ungraded stakes on his home circuit prior to migrating to Kentucky for his last two starts. He now has won eight of 11 starts and $286,881.

Wilbo was along for third, another 2 3/4 lengths behind Mr. Crow.
