Mike Maker has been going great guns as usual at Kentucky Downs, but Brad Cox – who's having another career year – one-upped him on Sept. 8 when he sent out the victorious Arklow in the Grade 3, $746,500

Kentucky Turf Cup on a record-setting day at this turf-only track.

"It's been a great year," Cox, who has been in the top 10 all year in the North American trainer standings for stable earnings, said by phone after inspecting yearlings at Keeneland all day.

Helped in no small part by a terrific ride from Florent Geroux, Arklow was along in time to defeat the Maker duo of Soglio and Bigger Picture when finishing the 1 1/2-mile distance in 2:30.56 over firm going. Maker, the all-time leading trainer here, had won with seven of his first 14 starters at this abbreviated meet and sent out the second through fifth finishers in the Turf Cup.

Arklow, a Kentucky-bred Arch colt owned by the partnership of Donegal Racing, Joseph Bulger, and Peter Coneway, returned $15.80 to win as fourth choice in the field of 12 older horses.

On an overcast, muggy day, Arklow raced in midpack for most of the 27th Turf Cup before splitting rivals at the quarter pole to suddenly emerge as a major threat. Down the stretch, with Geroux going to a rhythmic left hand, the colt surged past Soglio before holding off a last-gasp run by Bigger Picture to prevail by a half-length. Soglio was another neck back in third, with Bronson, a 77-1 shot, finishing fourth for Maker. The only other Maker trainee, Oscar Nominated, finished fifth as the 2-1 favorite and as the defending Turf Cup champion.

Arklow, 4, earned $432,450, more than doubling his bankroll to $853,382 with his second graded stakes triumph, following the Grade 2 American Turf on the 2017 Kentucky Derby undercard at Cox's home base, Churchill Downs. The colt now likely will be pointed to the Nov. 3 Breeders' Cup Turf at Churchill, said Cox.

"He's the type of horse we'd thought all along could be better at 4 or 5," Cox said.

"He'd trained really well for this."

With the victory, Cox surpassed the $10 million mark for stable earnings this year. He entered the day sixth in that category among all North American trainers.

A race earlier in the companion race to the Ladies Sprint, Insta Erma gave California trainer Richard Baltas his second stakes victory of the week at Kentucky Downs when she inched past a stubborn Valadorna to win the Grade 3, $474,780 Ladies Turf by a neck. The win followed a stakes victory for the trainer a couple days earlier when Next Shares took the $250,000 Old Friends on Sept. 6.

Del Mar leading jockey Drayden Van Dyke, who piloted Next Shares to success in the Old Friends, was aboard again for Baltas and delivered. He kept her well placed in the clear in eighth, aimed her after Valadorna when that one surged to the lead at the head of the lane, and gradually wore her down.

A 5-year-old daughter of Pioneerof the Nile owned by a partnership headed by Medalion Racing, Insta Erma won for the first time in four starts in 2018 and notched her first graded stakes victory in the process. She had picked up a Grade 1 placing last fall when third in the Matriarch.

The Ladies Turf marked her first start since finishing 11th in the Distaff Turf Mile at Churchill Downs on May 5, but she never showed rustiness or shortage of fitness in winning the Ladies Turf. Racing over her most effective distance of a mile, she was timed in 1:36.26. She paid $15.40 as part of a competitive cast.

Valadorna ran almost too well to lose in the Ladies Turf, travelling well in her first race on grass after having made 11 prior starts on dirt. She finished two lengths clear of Pas de Soucis in third.

Shooting through a rail opening for the long stretch drive, Proforma outfought favored White Flag in a frantic conclusion to the 20th running of the Grade 3, $500,000

CONTINUED

Kentucky Downs Turf Sprint on Sept. 8.

Ridden by Joe Bravo, Proforma returned $17.60 after finishing the 6 1/2-furlong distance in 1:15.72 over a firm course and getting a 94 Beyer Speed Figure. Mike Stidham trains the 4-year-old gelding for the DARRS Inc. of David Ross.

With a furlong to go, the Turf Sprint was wide open, with most of the pack having caught up to early leaders Little Chesney and Done Deal. In the end, Proforma proved strongest when finishing a head in front. It was his first graded victory and his fourth from 10 overall starts.

"When we got through I was like, 'Yeah, we got it,'" Bravo said. "It was a head-bob in the end, but we got it."

Stidham said Proforma, a Kentucky-bred by Munnings, could race next in the Oct. 6 Woodford at Keeneland or the Nov. 3 Breeders' Cup Turf Sprint at Churchill Downs. Both are at 5 1/2 furlongs on grass.

"Off that big effort, you'd have to think about it," Stidham said. "Of all the horses I've had over the years, he has to be one of the coolest, smartest horses of all. He does everything just right and loves his job."

Vici finished third, another half-length behind, while less than two lengths separated the winner from the seventh-place finisher, Conquest Panthera.

Whether she is racing on soft turf at Saratoga or firmer going at Kentucky Downs, Ruby Notion just keeps showing she is a crack turf sprinter. She illustrated as much on Sept. 8 in the Grade 3, $332,020 Kentucky Downs Ladies Sprint, a start after winning the July 23 Caress at Saratoga, by edging course specialist Lull and front-running Brielle's Appeal by a neck in a three-horse photo finish.

It was a gritty effort from the winner, battling between rivals, with Brielle's Appeal on her inside and a surging Lull on her outside. She raced 6 1/2 furlongs in a swift 1:15.80 on firm ground, giving her a brief course record that was eclipsed a half-hour later when Proforma went the same distance in 1:15.72 in the Kentucky Downs Turf Sprint.

"Up in New York, I thought maybe we took advantage of the elements – that it just worked out for us," trainer Darrin Miller said. "But she did what she did today. So that's great. Just really gutty. She's in such good form this year, obviously."

Both Ruby Notion and runner-up Lull enjoyed favorable trips, settling in stalking positions, as Brielle's Appeal sped to the lead under heavy pressure from longshot Bixby Lou through splits of 23.10 seconds and 45.96. There they waited to make their move, with Ruby Notion three or so paths off the inside and with Lull just outside her.

Brielle's Appeal did not go down easily. She was difficult to pass, only yielding in the closing strides to finish third, a nose behind Lull, who had won two prior stakes at Kentucky Downs from as many attempts.

"She showed so much fight today," winning jockey Florent Geroux said of Ruby Notion.

As a West Virginia-bred daughter of Great Notion, Ruby Notion was eligible for only $250,000 of the $450,000 full purse. Kentucky Downs Stakes races are supplemented by funds from the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund, which rewards Kentucky-breds with purse incentives.

Sky Promise closed with a rush to edge Weekend Wizard by three-quarters of a length in the Grade 3, $150,000 British Columbia Derby at Hastings on Sept. 8. He paid $4.70 to win as the favorite in the 12-horse field.

It appeared Weekend Wizard, who along with Canadian Game set moderate interior fractions of 23.64 and 48.98 seconds, would maintain his advantage. He had opened up a clear lead on the stretch turn, held a 2 1/2-length advantage at the eighth pole, and didn't appear to be slowing down in the stretch. However, he couldn't hold off Sky Promise, who, with Rico Walcott riding, altered his course midstretch and made a determined move from inside of Weekend Wizard. Canadian Game held on to finish third.

The final time for 1 1/8 miles over a track rated fast was 1:51.71

Walcott collapsed when he brought Sky Promise back to the winner's enclosure and wasn't able to take part in the post-race celebration. According to his agent, Bob Fowlis, Walcott had stomach cramps and was feeling better in the jocks room following the races.

Sky Promise is trained by Robertino Diodoro, who claimed the Sky Mesa colt for $40,000 on June 30 at Churchill Downs on behalf of Rick and Clayton Wiest, R 6 Stable, and Norman Trembley. In his two previous starts for his new connections, Sky Promise won the $75,000 Manitoba Derby at Assiniboia Downs and the Grade 3, $200,000 Canadian Derby at Northlands Park.

"I didn't think he had any chance at the top of the stretch," said Diodoro. "It was a great ride by Rico, who must have been hurting during the race. What a wonderful group of owners. They are having so much fun and are willing to put up their money to get nice horses. They had a blast at the hotel last night, and I guarantee you they will be going wild in the casino tonight."
