Ch. c, (Mar), by Curlin - Mythical Bride, by Street Cry-Ire. Trainer Pletcher Todd A. Bred by John D Gunther (Ky).

VINO ROSSO took up position in midpack after the start, went about the first turn from the three path, got maneuvered into the fourth one during the journey on the backstretch, scurried into contention with a sustained four wide run on the far turn, closing with gusto on the runaway leader, moved temporarily into path five, zooming by that rival in tandem with the second place finisher, at the five-sixteenths pole, was still directly abreast of ENTICED as they hit the top of the lane, but back into path four, began to come in after the rider switched over to a strong hand ride, intimidated the nemesis into moving closer to the rail, rider still asking his mount for run all the while, bumped solidly two times in rapid succession with the runner up during the run leading up to and then through the furlong grounds, held an even course thereafter, put away ENTICED coming up to the sixteenth pole and drew clear. ENTICED was content to stalk the loose leader from afar stationed in path two during the opening phases, continued to loosely draft behind that opponent for the first half of the trip on the far turn, quickened when let out a notch and out-raced a pair of opponents for position, one of those being the eventual winner, approaching the five-sixteenths pole, poked a head in front at that station issuing a successful three wide challenge, with VINO ROSSO in tow to the outside, spun into the lane on near even terms with the aforementioned rival, got herded in by the uncorrected winner past the three-sixteenths pole, twice leading each to bump into the other soundly, had enough courage to put up a fight for another sixteenth before getting shaken off. RESTORING HOPE strung out four wide on the first turn, was a bit closer on the subsequent one, tipped back into path four at the head of the stretch, went on to finish a non-threatening third. FIRENZE FIRE off the inside throughout, swung three wide onto the backstretch, was still in the same path for the commencement of the run around the far turn, got asked for more at the midway point, shifted out into path six for entrance into the stretch, failed to muster up a solid closing punch. HEARTFULLOFSTARS took the inside route, was put to strong encouragement cutting the corner into the lane, made no headway. KING ZACHARY rated in the two path to the half mile pole, was roused racing between foes on the far turn, moved out into path seven coming into the lane, lacked the needed response. EVALUATOR two to three wide on the opening turn, continued to race along the outside, was lightly hand urging shifting into path four coming up to the five-sixteenths marker, moved wider yet once into the lane, settling towards path eight, had no rally. OLD TIME REVIVAL away quickly, appeared headstrong from the get-go, ran off the competition pulling on the left, approached the conclusion of the backstretch in possession of his largest advantage, measuring in the neighborhood of six and a half lengths, saw it dwindle down in a steadfast manner making his way on the second bend, got collared in the vicinity of the five-sixteenths marker and faltered. CATCH TWENTY TWO primarily two wide during the initial stages, went on to save ground on the far turn to no avail. Following a Stewards' Inquiry focusing on the stretch run, in addition to a claim of foul lodged by the rider of ENTICED against the rider of VINO ROSSO alleging interference, the result was allowed to stand and the race was declared official.
