LADY ELI settled into midpack after a clean getaway, took the three path around both turns, crept up to SENTIERO ITALIA beginning from the three-eighths pole, turned for home, well in hand and poised to strike, was given her cue deep into the furlong grounds, drew on even terms approximately a sixteenth down the road, cemented herself to the top with a few more strides then edged away, kept to brisk encouragement to the end. SENTIERO ITALIA out-broke the field and went on to assume command, cleared over to the inside route as the first fraction was being posted, showed the way, rating kindly and feeling mild pressure from ITSONLYACTINGDAD out in path two, continued along under the same conditions until the three-eighths pole, the difference being the eventual winner lurking a danger at this point, shifted more into the two path when put to a drive in upper stretch, offered resistance before being reeling in right around the sixteenth pole, held out with distinction afterwards to procure the place. SEA CALISI (FR) sat unhurried in the two path, swung four wide into the stretch, mustered up a mild kick for the show award. STRIKE CHARMER saved ground to the quarter pole, was asked for run angling four wide into the stretch, lacked the needed response. ITSONLYACTINGDAD stalked the pace from the two path, coaxed along by the rider, was forced to undergo the task from between rivals from midpoint on turn two once the winner began to pick up interest, got asked for more a sixteenth later, stepped into the lane, remained a forward factor for a little while longer before backing away. AME BLEUE (GB) had a ground-saving journey, settled down by the end of the homestretch after pulling a bit on the bit earlier, was lightly hand urged keeping an eye on the leader, got cued up heading for the quarter pole, had no offering and faltered.
