DELTA BLUESMAN moved up to the lead steps after the start then challenged for the top spot by CHIEF LION, dueled along the inside of rival through the backstretch, came under a ride when rival took slight edge approaching the turn, kicked back in gamely near three sixteenths pole, took command then pulled away in the final furlong under a right handed drive. LIMOUSINE LIBERAL was rated off the duel in the backstretch, began to edge up closer then swung into action along the outside entering the lane, continued outside bid and got up to capture place in final strides. CHIEF LION moved up shortly after the start to challenge DELTA BLUESMAN for the early lead, continued to match strides along the outside of rival throughout the backstretch, held a slight edge over rival approaching the turn, could not move on with rival shortly after entering the lane, kept on then got caught for place at the wire. EIGHTY THREE was rated off the front runners in early stages, picked up the pace three furlongs out, hustled up three wide in the turn and continued steady bid for top three leaders in the lane. MORE APPLAUSE raced in the back of the field, urged to pick up the pace racing three to four wide but could not move on and finished on equal terms with COPINGAWAY. COPINGAWAY was unhurried in early stages and continued off the pace along the outside, asked for more but could not move on and finished on equal terms with MORE APPLAUSE. STORMING INTI steadily lost position to race in the back.
